

Andy's Illustrated Talks

The Poor Child's Friend: Joseph Lancaster's Educational Revolution.

Discover how a poor boy from the slums of Southwark advanced the cause of universal elementary education.

Bringing Dead Street to Life: The British Schools in Hitchin.

How the British Schools brought hope to the children of the working poor.

Talking in Class: An Oral History of the British Schools in Hitchin.

The sights, sounds and smells of school life in the early c20th in the words of the pupils and teachers of the British Schools in Hitchin.

Life and Legacy: The Remarkable Jill E. Grey.

Code-breaker, collector, curator, campaigner. Discover the fascinating life and enduring legacy of a true heritage heroine.

A School at War: The Hitchin British Schools 1914-1919

How the Great War affected one small school in one small town.

The Glory that was Greece: The golden age of Classical Athens.

The 'accidental' origins and continuing influence of c5th bc Athens.

The Last Bolshevik: Nikolai Ivanovich Bukharin.

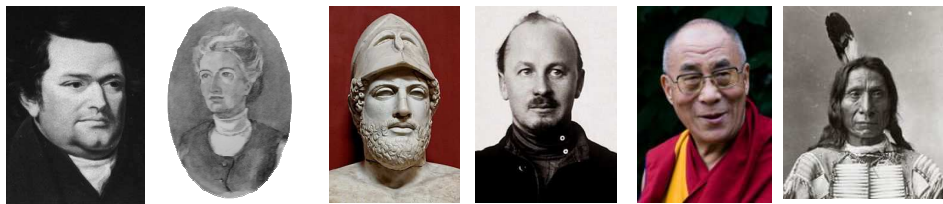

Was Stalin's tyranny inevitable? Discover the fate of Comrade Bukharin, the 'human face' of the Russian Revolution.

Nirvana Lost: An introduction to the History and Culture of Tibet.

Exploring the fascinating story of 'Shangri La'.

Red Cloud's War: How the West was Lost.

The clash of cultures which fuelled a thousand stories of the 'Wild West.'

The British Schools Museum is operated by the Hitchin British Schools Trust, Registered Charity No. 1010345. We are an independent ACE accredited Museum

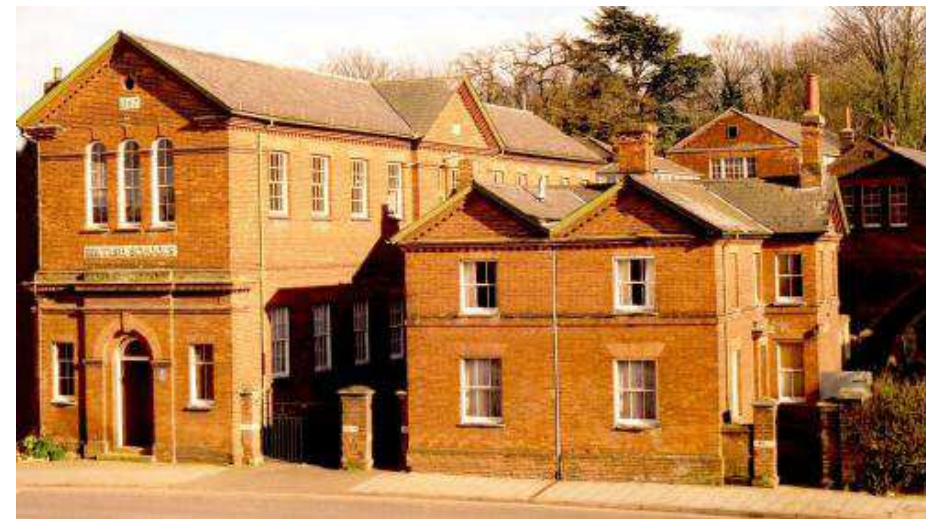

Andy's Illustrated Talks

Talks can be enjoyed at your venue or at the Museum. Why not combine it with a visit to the 'Home of the Educational Revolution':

www.britishschoolsmuseum.co.uk/groups

I can bring all necessary equipment, but if you do have a screen at your venue this helps to lighten my load.

Talks last between 45 and 75 minutes and can be tailored to your requirements (within reason!) I am happy to take questions afterwards. I may even be able to answer some of them!

I ask for a donation to the Hitchin British Schools Trust of £1 per head (minimum £30) for each talk. Travelling expenses are charged for venues more than 10 miles from the Museum, at 30p per mile.

For enquiries and bookings:

Call 01462 – 420144 or email:-

andy.gibbs@britishschoolsmuseum.org.uk

The British Schools Museum is operated by the Hitchin British Schools Trust, Registered Charity No. 1010345. We are an independent ACE accredited Museum

